Winemaker Joe Otos has been crafting award-winning wines from the prestigious Kaufman Sunnyslope vineyard since 2008. A five-acre site on the cooler north side of Sonoma Mountain, it produces Pinot noir grapes of the highest quality thanks to fog-free daytime sun offset by cool mountain evenings.

Picked in mid-September and fermented partially whole cluster over eleven days, our 2015 Willowbrook Cellars Kaufman Sunnyslope Vineyard Pinot noir displays nuanced aromas of cassis and sandalwood. On the palate the wine offers abundant and interwoven flavors of dark cherry, tobacco and allspice. The subtly smooth mouthfeel leads to a well-focused finish of complex, nutty tannins and gentle acidity.

The 2015 Willowbrook Cellars Kaufman Sunnyslope Vineyard Pinot noir is ready to drink now but will also benefit from aging for the next five years. It pairs naturally with herb-encrusted roast pork or Manchego cheeses.
