

STARRY NIGHT WINERY

2007 Alexander Valley Zinfandel

“The Caboose”

BIG – Yes, this is a big wine, you know, big as in like “The Caboose”.

As you walk this vineyard, Nervo Station Vineyard in the Alexander Valley, you crest a fairly steep hill, and there it is, in your face, a retired Santa Fe Railroad caboose!!

Ed Nervo, whose family originally purchased the Nervo Ranch in the 1890s, grew up on his family’s winery on the Northwestern Pacific main line and fell in love with railroads and all things railroad related. He somehow was able to move the caboose up the hill; where it stands today.

This wine is deep and complex with ripe, rich, fruit driven dark stone fruit aromas and flavors of black cherries and plum with a hint of cassis on the finish.
